

WYKAAO
Coming of Age
1983 ~ 2002

Wah Yan College
Kowloon Alumni
Association of Ontario

Our School badge is a Shield to protect from deceits, errors, and temptations. The Shield is our Faith in Jesus Christ. It has a blue colour, because blue is the colour of the sky and of serenity. Embedded in it is the sign "by which we are to conquer" (In Hoc Signo Vincas) which is the Cross of Christ. It is in red, which is the colour of charity, a love that is proved in suffering and sacrifice, a love which brings life and meaning to all we do. This then is what we wear and what represents our Wah Yan Spirit, a Christian education for the kingdom of God, in the Jesuit tradition.

Harold Naylor, S.J.

School Hymn

Our Captain and our King,
We kneel in love before thee,
Our hearts in tribute bring
Glad homage here to pay
O do not Thou disdain
The gift so mean, so poor;
More precious far we fain
Would offer and more pure.

Chorus:

*Our deep love O Lord,
Till this our life is o'er,
Be Thine forever more,
Be Thine forever more,
Yes, Thine forever more.*

Grant us, we pray, Thy cause
To champion, though so lowly
Nor ever fail nor pause,
When trials throng and press,
O God of battle, smite,
And nerve us for the fray;
O Prince of Peace, Thy light
Can ev'ry toil repay.

Chorus

COMING OF AGE

中學同學會是成人社團的異數，它不但凝聚及喚回失散歲月，更能在恍如一夢的重逢裡，彼此各自回顧生命一段旅程。當初以為艱困辛酸，如今看來卻甜美如蜜。

張鏜 (九華張振翱，1962)
美國南加州大學東亞語文系教授

When I first joined Wah Yan College, Kowloon in 1957, the teaching staff totalled only fifty-seven. Two-thirds of them were lay people and one-third Jesuits. We had annual retreats for Catholic lay staff at the Xavier Retreat House in Cheung Chau. My first retreat master was Fr. Taylor and the reader at meals was scholastic Francis Doyle. The message I had that keeps reminding me all these 45 years is: it is a blessing to be able to look back and then move on.

Nineteen years have passed since sixteen alumni of Wah Yan College, Kowloon decided to form an association. As shown in the timeline, the Wah Yan Kowloon Alumni Association enjoyed its happy childhood, managed its adolescence, and is now ready to move forward. Along its path, its members enjoyed many happy days in joint functions with Wah Yan College (Hong Kong) Ontario Alumni Association. To the people in Toronto, they are all sons of Wah Yan (華仁仔). They work hard, they play hard and they serve people with all their heart. They are gentlemen from a Jesuit Institution.

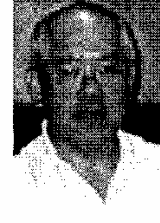

Many members of WYKAAO are examples of “Men for Others” and “Men with Others”. They are doctors, lawyers, engineers, social workers, and businessmen devoting their time to serve their communities. They work with others to promote worthy causes for the betterment of their fellow citizens. Some of their contribution to make Canada a better place to live in was recognized at the national level. In 1979, Kong Shui Loon (Class of 1954) was invested a Member of Order of Canada for serving the Chinese community and refugees from Southeast Asia. In 2000, Mak Tak Wah (Class of 1962) was honoured as an Officer of Order of Canada for his role as the first researcher to clone a T-cell receptor gene, which would lead to a better understanding of the human immune system.

What lies ahead? WYKAAO has built a strong foundation to bring in a broader social dimension to its activities. It should give support to members trying to be “Men for Others” and “Men with Others”. The theme of the 2002 Wah Yan International Conference hosted by WYCHKOAA at Toronto aptly shows the direction of alumni associations of Jesuit Institution – “Beyond Nostalgia”.

IN HOC SIGNO VINCES

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Everything you wanted to know about our Wah Yan College Kowloon Alumni Association, and was afraid to ask, could easily be the title of this booklet.

We opted for Coming of Age because we have come a long way since its inception nineteen years ago.

The success of our association is no accident, and there were a lot of ups and downs. We are here today because we have a lot of dedicated members and many of them have been with us since day one.

One of the main goals of this booklet is to provide our members with more information about our association. Our purpose and our history are listed in this booklet. We had our active and inactive times. We have had a lot of activities throughout the years; some were very well attended and some were not. We survived our lows because we have dedicated members who refused to give up. We enjoyed our highs because our members believe we have something good going.

This association belongs to all of us who treasure the Wah Yan education, and spirits.

On behalf of all of us, I would like to thank Mr. Anthony Ho and Joseph C. Wong for coming up with this idea. My thanks also go to those who help to produce this booklet. This is the first, and it will not be the last.

Augustine Yeung
President
