Annual General Meeting 2015

Dear Wahyanites,

Welcome to the first edition of the WYKPSA 2015-16 newsletters.

As old boys, we live and breathe our Alma Mater. It is where we spent our moments when we were young, and have many remarkable memories. Every time I speak with many of you, the topics that linger among us are the high and low, joy and tears together with our beloved Jesuit Fathers, Teachers, School Staff and Alumni. I believe all of us have at least one thing relating to our School that will make you never forget, and I believe these are the "seeds" that keep our sense of belongings and brotherhood.

I am proud to be part of Wah Yan and able to work with our Executive Committee to bring all of us closer and contribute to our community. Through this newsletter and the activities we introduce, I wish the Jesuit spirit "For and With Others" can be passed on to our next generations.

Regards,

WYKPSA

Tree Collapse

We are sorry to report that, under black rainstorm signal, a tree next to the football court was collapsed in the morning on 26 May 2015. Fortunately, no one was injured.

Wahyanites used to throw their shoes onto the tree after the football match. It had been a special and unique memory to us, especially to those who love playing football in the school. It was a sad day for Wahyanites that the tree which carried lots of beautiful memory collapsed under bad weather.
