

7th report on 2017 rhapsody

ANNOUNCEMENT ONE –

With not much response from Classmates on hotel accommodation in Toronto, Gus Yeung, after having discussed with Andrew Tang, has decided not to explore the possibility of getting group-discount from local hotels. 170312/at

ANNOUNCEMENT TWO –

My apology for the omission of Vincent & Linda LEE in my 6th report. 170313/at

ANNOUNCEMENT THREE –

Margaret & I are offering an open-house at our house on September 16, Saturday.

- 1. Some of the participants will already be in Toronto by that day. So we can have a bit of pre-Rhapsody get-together.*
- 2. It may offer an opportunity for the nearby WYK65ers to come for some gathering if they are not participating in the Rhapsody.*
- 3. We can be casual without any concern of the venue & hours.*
- 4. No cost to those who come to the open-house.*

Margaret & I will look after all the food and drinks. We need some suggestions on whether it is better to be at lunch time, afternoon tea time, or all evening.

*Your feedback will be appreciated.

ANNOUNCEMENT FOUR –

John Fung has generously agreed to advance our final payments to Blue Mountain Resort (BMR); and thus, we don't have to settle the final payment, an additional C$2736.34 by Friday, the 18th August 2017, as stipulated in the Contract. We can now settle our accounts with John & myself at site. 170522/at

OTHER RESOLUTIONS –

John, on his suggested group activities and with majority opted for (a), (b) & (c), worked out a self-guided exploration (2-3 hours) at Scenic Caves Nature Adventure on day 2 and a leisure 4-Kilometer hike at local park on day 3.

Mr Anthony HO, Ms Gertrude CHAN, Mr & Mrs Jeffrey MAH, President of WYKAAO, were invited with acceptance as our guests of honor, to join us at the Rhapsody Dinner on the 19th September.

It was resolved that, for simplicity, accommodations, with the exception of Don YAU et al, and expenses incurred at the BMR will be shared among participants and settled at the end of the Rhapsody. Expenses incurred at other functions will be shared among participants, with the exception of our honorable guests.

With WaiCheung / Mylene & MongWah TANG, my brother, sister-in-law and sister, joining us at the Rhapsody, we, the Tangs, shall take up the Mountain Walk 3-bedroom condo; thus, no lottery is deemed necessary and problem solved.

Classmates, who cannot attend the 3-days Rhapsody at BMR, are more than welcome to attend Margaret-Bonbon Open House on the 16th, the reunion dimsum on the 17th and rhapsody dinner on the 19th September. Please communicate with the hosts and/or undersigned for reservation.

Our evening programs will include harmonica solo (vpc); rebus (jf-fb); 講鬼故 ghost-story telling (dy); 劃鬼腳 lucky draws (at); and any performances you may think of.

Our next meeting will be held on Saturday, the 12th August 2017, at 10:00 am at the Grand Lakes (太湖盛宴). All participants are welcomed to attend, in particular, our local classmates; and at which time, carpooling arrangement will be organized.
