(history originally created 2018-10-11)

--- compiled by Yu Fong Ying and Wong Hin Shing, October 27, 2023

This addendum tries to document the reunion meetings of 61 grads from 2018 to 2023. We extend many thanks to Chiu Hei Kaw for supplying a good number of the photos and dates, mainly about gatherings in Hong Kong. But it has to be stressed that this document is unlikely to be a complete picture.

2023-07-31-London Reunion Lunch with Harry Aitken (Visitors: Yu Fong-ying and May Yu)

Fong-ying wrote 2023-08-18:

My recent mini reunion meeting with Harry Aitken on July 31 at the Royal China Restaurant in Canary Wharf, London.

I was attending my nephew's wedding and called him. He invited me and May to a dim sum lunch near my hotel in Canary Wharf to the east of where he lives, in Westminster. He had the enormous generosity of picking a place close to us, travelling by boat to the pier near the restaurant. He was already seated when we arrived, and was very courteous to May.

I was surprised to find him carrying a cane. He said it was due to a recent fall, and he urged me and all 61 grads to pay special attention not to have a fall. We had a hearty dim sum meal. He had celebrated his 80th birthday the previous week, which makes him 2 months my senior.

We reminisced long about our school days and Harry spilled a few stories about how he convinced Fr Toner to accept him into Form 1 from Tak Sun primary 6 because WYK was his first choice. (I had to repeat primary 6). We were both in Lower 6 Arts; he left after a few weeks to do engineering at the Technical Institute and after a while decided to join the police force. He was one of the few candidates accepted and he did excellently at the police academy. The rest is history. The bond that binds us, we agree is due to the fathers and teachers, and the WYK spirit and ethos. "62 years," he exclaimed.

I attach two photos taken, one by May and the group shot a selfie with his superior camera.

We had half a pint of Guinness at The Shakespeare in central London in 2016. I do hope we can clink glasses again some day.

2023-10-02-Toronto Mini Reunion Lunch with Hin-Shing and Jacob Chow at Mcdonald's

Hin-Shing wrote 2023-10-02:

Today, I had lunch with Jacob and Fong-ying & May at McDonald's. The lunch gathering lasted for almost two hours and we shared lots of memories and we learned a lot from Jacob about Covid vaccines and other medically-related matters. Fong-ying also told us about his visit to a Hong Kong U u-mate (who is also a great friend of mine) in Sudbury. May is very nice and helps me out of the Uber car, and she has ordered the food for us. A very good spouse!

Thanks to Fong-ying and May who ubered me from home to McDonald's and back. They also bought me lots of delicious food.

Hope there will be another time like this in years to come ...

2023-10-20- Vancouver Reunion Dinner among Vancouver Classmates

Fong-ying wrote 2023-10-21:

The Wah Yan Kowloon 61/62 Grads held a reunion dinner on 20th October 2023, the first time after the onset of Covid. Present were Gilbert Chinn, Ho Kar Wing, Tony Chow and Yu Fong Ying and spouses (except May Yu because of coughing not Covid-related). Apologies were received from Martina Lam, and Lam Yuk Ming and Rowena who were on a trip to East Canada.

Yu Fong Ying reported his earlier reunion meetings with Harry Aitken (who urged everyone to be careful not to fall), the Torontonians WYK-ers and spouses, and separately with Wong Hin Shing and Jacob Chow.

The Vancouver get-together was enjoyed and welcomed by all of us as we savoured the good company, good chat and good food.

B. Reunion Meetings among Hong Kong Classmates

No direct information or photos have been sent to Wong Hin-shing from organisers of such meetings. But Chiu Hei Kaw was able to supply us with photos and dates of meetings he took part in. He stressed that the following listing was by no means complete. There might be other meetings he was not aware of.
